Field Etiquette

- Adherence to field etiquette and proper hunting attire is expected at all times.
- Kindly ensure that your guests are informed of these expectations.
- Field members must not interfere with or distract the hounds unless specifically requested to assist by a member of the hunt staff.

Attire Guidelines

- Cubbing and weekday hunts (after opening meet):
Ratcatcher attire is appropriate. Stock ties are required on weekdays following opening meet. When hunting in our own country on a Friday—during both the cubbing and formal seasons—informal attire is acceptable. However, proper headgear (a helmet with harness/strap) and appropriate footwear (boots with heels) remain mandatory at all times.
- Formal hunts: Formal attire is required for all Sunday hunts after opening meet. Braiding is customary during opening meet. Protective headgear with a harness/strap and boots with heels are mandatory.
- Weather considerations: Hunts will proceed as scheduled, weather permitting. Proper rain gear is allowed when necessary.
