

2024 MILL CREEK HUNT (MCH) CLUB NO-DRAMA AGREEMENT

The Mill Creek Hunt Club operates today to carry on the sport and traditions of fox hunting. We are incredibly fortunate that many people before us gave generously of their time, treasure, and talents to leave for us the opportunity we have today. We have good sport only 45 miles from one of the countries largest cities, in a county of over 700,000 people. Keeping this going is no easy task, and for all that are fortunate enough to enjoy it, we ask that all members and guests abide by these simple rules:

- 1. Both professional and honorary staff work hard to prepare the hounds, country, and events for riders and members to enjoy. It is unacceptable to be publicly critical (verbal, written, social media, etc.) any of these people or their efforts.*
- 2. If you see anyone being cruel to an animal, acting in a way to be a danger to themselves or others, being destructive to property, or disrespectful to land owners or others in any way associated with the hunt, you are obligated to let a Master or Field Master know about this, and to let them deal with the situation. There will be no follow-up discussions or comments concerning the matter unless it is with aforementioned staff.*
- 3. Everyone is expected to be mannerly and polite when attending club activities. There is no room for criticism, leers, or foul language.*
- 4. 'Drama' in any form is unacceptable. If a member or guest feels the need to create or add to 'drama', MCH is not a suitable place to do it.*

It is impossible for everyone to like everyone, or for there to never be moments of tension or hurt feelings. What is expected is that each member and guest deals with these occurrences with class and dignity, and to not add to the apparent discomfort.

Any member or guest may be excused from a hunt by a Director, Field Master, or Master at their sole discretion. Memberships may be cancelled by a majority vote of the Club Directors, with no obligation for refund of dues or fees paid.

Please sign and date that you have read, understand, and agree to abide to these terms.
